Perkins and Ladd Land on the Ball For Circuit Clouts.

(Springfield Union.) Holyoke, June 19.-If Uncle Jeer d'Rourke could only teach his hirelings to field as well as they can wield the on, they would be resting in a much better position on the percentage ladder than they are at present occupying. This fact was brought home to veteran Orator for the umptyeventh time this season here yestery afternoon, when his Bridgeport binglites outbatted Holyoke's troupe of eavy hitters, only to throw away the tilt on a bundle of bobbies, which were tilt on a bundle of bobbles, which were nicely bunched for the most part and spoiled whatever was gained by their stickwork. The net result of their mistakes mixed with some choice home clouts was a 7 to 6 score.

The hitting honors went to Ladd and Perkins with over-the-wall wallops, Ladd's coming with two on and Perkins' with one runner ahead of him. Quite as prominent were Hitt and Mc-Aloon with three singles each.

TOMORROW'S BALL GAMES

Many Attractive Bookings for the Fans on Local and Neighboring Diamonds.

The Newfields will play the Walling ford T. A. B. team tomorrow at the Meadows, game called at 3:30 o'clock. The Newfields defeated this team last Saturday at Wallingford in a ten inning contest, 6-5. Wells, the find of it being his first game at home. Wells pitched a 1-0 game at Meriden Wedpitched a 1-0 game at Meriden Wednesday, allowing five hits and did not give a pass. Saunders, the New Britain polo player, is covering second base for the visitors. As this is the first time that the Wallingford club has played in this city a big crowd ought to turn out to see them.

The attraction for tomorrow at West End Park will be the strong Woodbury team, who will have as their battery two Bridgeport boys, Holmes and Gill. Game called at 3:30, with Dan Shanon umpiring.

Manager O'Brien of the South Ends has at last had his hopes realized by the booking of the fast Seymour team for tomorrow at the Flats. The wires have been working for some time to land this team, but not till yesterday afternoon was Manager O'Brien sure that the team would be here. This team has appeared here almost every season, being the opponents of either the Newfields or the West Ends. They have always put up a snarpy article of

Cared for Spinster for 22 Years; Court Awards Schempps Sum of $12.500

Adam and Mary Schempp are allowd $12,500 for the services in caring for the late Agnes Coffee, in a decision by Judge Lucien F. Burpee, made yesterday. The commissioners allowed the Schempps $8,600. In a decision in a demurrer Judge Gager ruled that the statute of limitations would preclude the Schemps from colecting their claim for a pediod of more than six years back of the date of their suit. Judge Burpee is not in accord with this ruling, but he finds that for their services for six years the Schempps are entitled to $8,200. Miss Coffee was a maid servant who worked for many years for a single family. At 60 years of age she had saved some $10,000 which accumulated until it was a larger sum. She entered into an agreement with the Schempps to care for her until she died. She agreed in return to leave them her money. For 22 years they kept their share of the contract, but when the woman died she left her money to distant relatives. Judge Morris B. Beardsley as commissioner on the estate gave the Schempps $8,600. The heirs appealed.

MISS FLEMING RETURNS

Popular Leading Woman After Week's Respite to Assume Leading Role in the Brilliant Comedy "Mrs. Temple's

After a week's rest from her arduous duties, Miss Alice Fleming, Poll's popular leading woman, returns enext week in the leading role of the most successful romedy of today, "Mrs. Temple's Telegram." Because of the intense nervous strain which the talented young acress has been under during the first four weeks of stock and in anticipation of still harder work fanager Dunbar, will twirl this game, during the coming summer months, it was deemed imperative that Miss Fieming take a much needed respite this week. Among some of the heavier productions which the young actress will be called upon to lead are "Zaza" and "Leah Kleshna," both requiring an immense amount of preparation aration.

Miss Fleming's friends who are legion, will be glad to welcome the popular actress back next week in her role of Mrs. Jack Temple, which is said to be one of her best presentations. Miss Fleming will have ample opportunity in this play to display her unusual talents. The play is said to be the most successful comedy ever written and to furnish a laugh each minute. "Mrs. Temple's Telegram" minute. "Mrs. Temple's Telegram" will be given at Poll's next week as originally produced at the Madison Square theatre where it enjoyed the unprecedented run of a solid year.

The story of the piece is as full of mirth as a nut is of meat. There is never a dull moment from curtain to curtain. "Mrs. Temple's Telegram" should prove one of the crowning achievements of the Poll stock com-pany this, season.

ENGINEER DIED AT HIS POST

His Last Act Prevented the Destruction of His Train

(Special from United Press.) Scranton, Pa., June 19.-M. C. Davis of Kingston, engineer on a Lackawan na coal train bound for Port Morris N. J., died at his post late last night at Poccono Summit and as he died he stopped his train and prevented a runaway down the mountain and possibly a wreck at the foot that would have caused a loss of life. Davis' last act was to throw on the air brakes either deliberately or ac-cidentally at the time he stopped the train and when the conductor came up Davis lay dead on the freight depot platform after having been knocked out of the cab.
